

ITE Colorado Wyoming Section Best Annual Meeting Paper Award

For Colorado Wyoming Section Members ONLY

The ITE Colorado Wyoming Section Best Annual Meeting Paper Award recognizes the author(s) of a paper judged to be the best of those written and presented at the ITE Western District Annual Meeting based upon its value to everyday transportation engineering. The author(s) must be Colorado-Wyoming Section member(s). Papers are screened by the technical committee and judged by a panel of Colorado Wyoming Section Executive Committee (EC) members, reviewing both the paper and presentation. Key criteria include: Ability to easily understand author's subject; Material which provides innovative/unique creative information to ITE members; Quality of presentation; Ability to clearly communicate information presented in paper and time management. The winning author(s) receive $100 cash award at the first ITE Colorado Wyoming Section monthly meeting held after the Western District Annual Meeting.
